

To the guardian of us citizen's public airways: here is a citizen's Protest!

About Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary -- a clear example to us
citizens of the dangers of media
consolidation.

Sinclair uses our public airwaves free of charge, "to serve the public interest." Do we so blatantly get
"what's good for their bottom line"
rather than "what we need for our democracy?"

I thought that FCC
and Congress already went around about
media ownership
rules??

watching overtly
paid-for political
"commercials" is one thing; but being shown the same thing
as quality-journalism
"news" is too
clearly a distortion
of how we-the-public are supposed to be treated -- according to how we-the-public would expect from
FCC
guidelines/rules.

This citizen is hereby protesting.

Somewhat (no,
actual) grumpily,
Doug Engelbart
